

DR. RAJESH MUNGLANI – Articles, Letters, Conferences and Lectures

Articles including BPS

Consent in Pain Medicine parts 1,2 & 3, R Munglani et al, Pain News May 2018 Vol 16(2)

This is us, R Munglani, Pain News June 2018 Vol 16(2) 47-48

The Colour of Pain, R Munglani, Pain News August 2018 Vol 16(3) 98 – 102

The Relationship Between Cannabidiol and Cannabis, R Munglani, Pain News September 2018 Vol 16(3) 117-120

When a Food and a medicine is also in a banned drug: the relationship between cannabidiol and cannabis, R Munglani, Pain News, September 2018 Vol16(3) 117-120

Is Pain Relief a Human Right? R Munglani et al Pain News October 2018 Vol 16(4) 160-165

No Stethoscope for Pain, R Munglani, Pain News February 2019 Vol 17(1) 4-7

Why never to put marbles in the bottom of your chunky soup: (or how not to talk to your patients), R Munglani, Pain News, June 2019 Vol 17(2) 61-63

The late visit and the unexpected visitor, R Munglani, September 2019, Vol 17(3) 114-117

Below pending 19 11 2019

Letters and consensus statements

Alfie Evans Letter to the Times

Lidocaine 5% medicated plasters for localised neuropathic pain: A position statement from the British Pain Society

Drugs and the Law Comment to the Times

BPS/FPM Consensus Statement on the use of Corticosteroids for Neuraxial Procedures in the UK.

Chapters

Pain After Catastrophic Injury Pending info

Conferences & lectures

British Pain Society ASM Conference – May 2018

Discussion regarding consent – UCLH NH Foundation Trust 7 June 2018

Peterhouse conference – September 2018

Consenting in Regional Anaesthesia Lecture for the Faculty of Pain Medicine February 2019

British Pain Society ASM – May 2019

Peterhouse conference, September 2019

Interventions & Consent in Regional Anaesthesia and in Pain: Clinical & Legal Aspects - BAOIA (British Association of Indian Anaesthetists) Conference – October 2019

Topic TBA – Welsh Pain Society ASM – November 2019